They Birds Bio

INFO: Nonagon, a punk-rock concern from Chicago, has been making songs and paying shows since 2003 or so. If you do the math, it will correctly suggest that we are gentlemen-of-a-certain-age who still feel compelled to make noise and hone our thing.

We play short, loud songs with unconventional hooks and time-signatures. Sure, we wear some of our post-punk influences on our sleeves, but we think we're adding to the discussion.

Our recorded output over the years has included 3 EPs, along with some comps and a couple of split 7"s, until now... Our first full-length LP will be released in February of 2021. They Birds was recorded by Jon San Paolo at Electrical Audio and will be available on vinyl as well as digitally.

Fair warning: when it's safe to do so, we plan to play ALL OF THE SHOWS.
